Dear Mr. Cosgrove:

Thank you for your thoughtful letter of December 2nd, and for your kind comments concerning my appearance at Harvard. As you might imagine, I get a great deal of mail telling me about all the things I'm doing wrong but hardly any of the other kind. I very much appreciate your taking the time to write.

I am particularly heartened by your reaction because I firmly believe that someone in my position should make himself personally available to the public in forums such as the one at the JFK School of Government and Public Affairs to answer firsthand those questions of most concern to the public.

I am enclosing a copy of my remarks as you requested. Many thanks again and all good wishes for the holiday season.

Yours sincerely,

/s/ Stansfield Turner
